Dear Judge Sullivan:

Defendants write regarding the above captioned matters, which are RNC cases that are consolidated before Your Honor and Magistrate James C. Francis IV. Plaintiffs' counsel join in this request.

Plaintiffs in Adams, Phillips, Sikelianos, and Tikkun have appealed the dismissal of their emotional distress claims by filing Rule 72 objections. Defendants have not yet filed their opposition to these objections. In the interest of judicial economy, all parties agree that a consolidated briefing schedule is the most efficient way to proceed. Additionally, there are pending motions to dismiss emotional distress claims before Magistrate Francis in Adams and Abdell. Once Magistrate Francis decides these motions, the parties will submit a joint briefing schedule in the captioned actions. Accordingly, we request that the briefing schedules in Adams, Phillips, Sikelianos, and Tikkun be stayed until a decision by Magistrate Francis on the pending motions in Adams and Abdell is issued.² Thereafter, the parties will contact Your Honor and
